Form W-4 (2018)

Future developments. For the latest information about any future developments related to Form W-4, such as legislation enacted after it was published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW4.

Purpose. Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. Consider completing a new Form W-4 each year and when your personal or financial situation changes.

Exemption from withholding. You may claim exemption from withholding for 2018 if both of the following apply.

- For 2017 you had a right to a refund of all federal income tax withheld because you had no tax liability, and
- For 2018 you expect a refund of all federal income tax withheld because you expect to have no tax liability.

If you're exempt, complete only lines 1, 2, 3, 4, and 7 and sign the form to validate it. Your exemption for 2018 expires February 15, 2019. See Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax, to learn more about whether you qualify for exemption from withholding.

General Instructions

If you aren't exempt, follow the rest of these instructions to determine the number of withholding allowances you should claim for withholding for 2018 and any additional amount of tax to have withheld. For regular wages, withholding must be based on allowances you claimed and may not be a flat amount or percentage of wages.

You can also use the calculator at www.irs.gov/W4App to determine your tax withholding more accurately. Consider using this calculator if you have a more complicated tax situation, such as if you have a working spouse, more than one job, or a large amount of nonwage income outside of your job. After your Form W-4 takes effect, you can also use this calculator to see how the amount of tax you're having withheld compares to your projected total tax for 2018. If you use the calculator, you don't need to complete any of the worksheets for Form W-4.

Note that if you have too much tax withheld, you will receive a refund when you file your tax return. If you have too little tax withheld, you will owe tax when you file your tax return, and you might owe a penalty.

Filers with multiple jobs or working spouses. If you have more than one job at a time, or if you're married and your spouse is also working, read all of the instructions including the instructions for the Two-Earners/Multiple Jobs Worksheet before beginning.

Nonwage income. If you have a large amount of nonwage income, such as interest or dividends, consider making estimated tax payments using Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals. Otherwise, you might owe additional tax. Or, you can use the Deductions, Adjustments, and Other Income Worksheet on page 3 or the calculator at www.irs.gov/W4App to make sure you have enough tax withheld from your paycheck. If you have pension or annuity income, see Pub. 505 or use the calculator at www.irs.gov/W4App to find out if you should adjust your withholding on Form W-4 or W-4P.

Nonresident alien. If you're a nonresident alien, see Notice 1392, Supplemental Form W-4 Instructions for Nonresident Aliens, before completing this form.

Specific Instructions

Personal Allowances Worksheet

Complete this worksheet on page 3 first to determine the number of withholding allowances to claim.

Line C. Head of household please note:

Generally, you can claim head of household filing status on your tax return only if you're unmarried and pay more than 50% of the costs of keeping up a home for yourself and a qualifying individual. See Pub. 501 for more information about filing status.

Line E. Child tax credit. When you file your tax return, you might be eligible to claim a credit for each of your qualifying children. To qualify, the child must be under age 17 as of December 31 and must be your dependent who lives with you for more than half the year. To learn more about this credit, see Pub. 972, Child Tax Credit. To reduce the tax withheld from your pay by taking this credit into account, follow the instructions on line E of the worksheet. On the worksheet you will be asked about your total income. For this purpose, total income includes all of your wages and other income, including income earned by a spouse, during the year.

Line F. Credit for other dependents. When you file your tax return, you might be eligible to claim a credit for each of your dependents that don't qualify for the child tax credit, such as any dependent children age 17 and older. To learn more about this credit, see Pub. 505. To reduce the tax withheld from your pay by taking this credit into account, follow the instructions on line F of the worksheet. On the worksheet, you will be asked about your total income. For this purpose, total income includes all of your wages and other income, including income earned by a spouse, during the year.

Line G. Other credits. You might be able to reduce the tax withheld from your paycheck if you expect to claim other tax credits, such as the earned income tax credit and tax credits for education and child care expenses. If you do so, your paycheck will be larger but the amount of any refund that you receive when you file your tax return will be smaller. Follow the instructions for Worksheet 1-6 in Pub. 505 if you want to reduce your withholding to take these credits into account.

Deductions, Adjustments, and Additional Income Worksheet

Complete this worksheet to determine if you're able to reduce the tax withheld from your paycheck to account for your itemized deductions and other adjustments to income such as IRA contributions. If you do so, your refund at the end of the year will be smaller, but your paycheck will be larger. You're not required to complete this worksheet or reduce your withholding if you don't wish to do so.

You can also use this worksheet to figure out how much to increase the tax withheld from your paycheck if you have a large amount of nonwage income, such as interest or dividends.

Another option is to take these items into account and make your withholding more accurate by using the calculator at www.irs.gov/W4App. If you use the calculator, you don't need to complete any of the worksheets for Form W-4.

Two-Earners/Multiple Jobs Worksheet

Complete this worksheet if you have more than one job at a time or are married filing jointly and have a working spouse. If you don't complete this worksheet, you might have too little tax withheld. If so, you will owe tax when you file your tax return and might be subject to a penalty.

Figure the total number of allowances you're entitled to claim and any additional amount of tax to withhold on all jobs using worksheets from only one Form W-4. Claim all allowances on the W-4 that you or your spouse file for the highest paying job in your family and claim zero allowances on Forms W-4 filed for all other jobs. For example, if you earn $60,000 per year and your spouse earns $20,000, you should complete the worksheets to determine what to enter on lines 5 and 6 of your Form W-4, and your spouse should enter zero ("0") on lines 5 and 6 of his or her Form W-4. See Pub. 505 for details.

Another option is to use the calculator at www.irs.gov/W4App to make your withholding more accurate.

Tip: If you have a working spouse and your incomes are similar, you can check the "Married, but withhold at higher Single rate" box instead of using this worksheet. If you choose this option, then each spouse should fill out the Personal Allowances Worksheet and check the "Married, but withhold at higher Single rate" box on Form W-4, but only one spouse should claim any allowances for credits or fill out the Deductions, Adjustments, and Additional Income Worksheet.

Instructions for Employer

Employees, do not complete box 8, 9, or 10. Your employer will complete these boxes if necessary.

New hire reporting. Employers are required by law to report new employees to a designated State Directory of New Hires. Employers may use Form W-4, boxes 8, 9, and 10 to comply with the new hire reporting requirement for a newly hired employee. A newly hired employee is an employee who hasn't previously been employed by the employer, or who was previously employed by the employer but has been separated from such prior employment for at least 60 consecutive days. Employers should contact the appropriate State Directory of New Hires to find out how to submit a copy of the completed Form W-4. For information and links to each designated State Directory of New Hires (including for U.S. territories), go to www.acf.hhs.gov/programs/cssl/employers.

If an employer is sending a copy of Form W-4 to a designated State Directory of New Hires to comply with the new hire reporting requirement for a newly hired employee, complete boxes 8, 9, and 10 as follows.

Box 8. Enter the employer's name and address. If the employer is sending a copy of this form to a State Directory of New Hires, enter the address where child support agencies should send income withholding orders.

Box 9. If the employer is sending a copy of this form to a State Directory of New Hires, enter the employee's first date of employment, which is the date services for payment were first performed by the employee. If the employer rehired the employee after the employee had been separated from the employer's service for at least 60 days, enter the rehire date.

Box 10. Enter the employer's employer identification number (EIN).

Privacy Act and Paperwork Reduction Act Notice. We ask for the information on this form to carry out the Internal Revenue laws of the United States. Internal Revenue Code sections 3402(f)(2) and 6109 and their regulations require you to provide this information; your employer uses it to determine your federal income tax withholding. Failure to provide a properly completed form will result in your being treated as a single person who claims no withholding allowances; providing fraudulent information may subject you to penalties. Routine uses of this information include giving it to the Department of Justice for civil and criminal litigation; to cities, states, the District of Columbia, and U.S. commonwealths and possessions for use in administering their tax laws; and to the Department of Health and Human Services for use in the National Directory of New Hires. We may also disclose this information to other countries under a tax treaty, to federal and state agencies to enforce federal nontax criminal laws, or to federal law enforcement and intelligence agencies to combat terrorism.

You aren't required to provide the information requested on a form that's subject to the Paperwork Reduction Act unless the form displays a valid OMB control number. Books or records relating to a form or its instructions must be retained as long as their contents may become material in the administration of any Internal Revenue law. Generally, tax returns and return information are confidential, as required by Code section 6103.

The average time and expenses required to complete and file this form will vary depending on individual circumstances. For estimated averages, see the instructions for your income tax return.

If you have suggestions for making this form simpler, we would be happy to hear from you. See the instructions for your income tax return.

NC-4 Employee's Withholding Allowance Certificate

PURPOSE - Complete Form NC-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct amount of State income tax from your pay. If you do not provide an NC-4 to your employer, your employer is required to withhold based on the filing status, "Single" with zero allowances.

FORM NC-4 EZ - You may use Form NC-4-EZ if you plan to claim either the N.C. Standard Deduction or the N.C. Child Deduction Amount (but no other N.C. deductions), and you do not plan to claim any N.C. tax credits.

FORM NC-4 NRA - If you are a nonresident alien you must use Form NC-4 NRA. In general, a nonresident alien is an alien (not a U.S. citizen) who has not passed the green card test or the substantial presence test. (See Publication 519, U.S. Tax Guide for Aliens, for more information on the green card test and the substantial presence test.)

FORM NC-4 BASIC INSTRUCTIONS - Complete the NC-4 Allowance Worksheet. The worksheet will help you determine your withholding allowances based on federal and State adjustments to gross income including the N.C. Child Deduction Amount, N.C. itemized deductions, and N.C. tax credits. However, you may claim fewer allowances than you are entitled to if you wish to increase the tax withheld during the tax year. If your withholding allowances decrease, you must file a new NC-4 with your employer within 10 days after the change occurs. Exception: When an individual ceases to be "Head of Household" after maintaining the household for the major portion of the year, a new NC-4 is not required until the next year.

TWO OR MORE JOBS - If you have more than one job, determine the total number of allowances you are entitled to claim on all jobs using one Form NC-4 Allowance Worksheet. Your withholding will usually be most accurate when all allowances are claimed on the NC-4 filed for the higher paying job and zero allowances are claimed for the other. You should also refer to the "Multiple Jobs Table" to determine the additional amount to be withheld on Line 2 of Form NC-4 (See page 5).

NONWAGE INCOME - If you have a large amount of nonwage income, such as interest or dividends, you should consider making estimated tax payments using Form NC-40 to avoid underpayment of estimated tax interest. Form NC-40 is available on the Department's website at www.dorn.com.

HEAD OF HOUSEHOLD - Generally you may claim "Head of Household" filing status on your tax return only if you are unmarried and pay more than 50% of the costs of keeping up a home for yourself and your dependent(s) or other qualifying individuals.

SURVIVING SPOUSE - You may claim "Surviving Spouse" filing status only if your spouse died in either of the two preceding tax years and you meet the following requirements:

1. Your home is maintained as the main household of a child or stepchild for whom you can claim a federal exemption; and
2. You were entitled to file a joint return with your spouse in the year of your spouse's death.

MARRIED TAXPAYERS - For married taxpayers, both spouses must agree as to whether they will complete the NC-4 Allowance Worksheet based on the filing status, "Married Filing Jointly" or "Married Filing Separately."

- Married taxpayers who complete the worksheet based on the filing status, "Married Filing Jointly" should consider the sum of both spouses' income, federal and State adjustments to income, and State tax credits to determine the number of allowances.
- Married taxpayers who complete the worksheet based on the filing status, "Married Filing Separately" should consider only his or her portion of income, federal and State adjustments to income, and State tax credits to determine the number of allowances.

All NC-4 forms are subject to review by the North Carolina Department of Revenue. Your employer may be required to send this form to the North Carolina Department of Revenue.

CAUTION: If you furnish an employer with an Employee's Withholding Allowance Certificate that contains information which has no reasonable basis and results in a lesser amount of tax being withheld than would have been withheld had you furnished reasonable information, you are subject to a penalty of 50% of the amount not properly withheld.

Cut here and give this certificate to your employer. Keep the top portion for your records.

Instructions. Use Form NC-4EZ if you:

- Plan to claim the N.C. Standard Deduction
- Plan to claim the N.C. Child Deduction Amount (but no other N.C. deductions)
- Do not plan to claim N.C. tax credits
- Prefer not to complete the extended Form NC-4
- Qualify to claim exempt status (See Lines 3 or 4 below)

Important. If you plan to claim N.C. itemized deductions or plan to claim other N.C. deductions (other than the N.C. Child Deduction Amount), you must complete Form NC-4. If you are a nonresident alien, you must complete Form NC-4 NRA. In general, a nonresident alien is an alien (not a U.S. citizen) who has not passed the green card test or the substantial presence test. (See Publication 519, U.S. Tax Guide for Aliens, for more information on the green card test and the substantial presence test.)

If you plan to claim the N.C. Child Deduction Amount, use the table below for your filing status, amount of income, and number of children under age 17 to determine the number of allowances to enter on Line 1. For married taxpayers, only one spouse may claim the allowance for the N.C. Child Deduction Amount for each child.

Code of Conduct for Church Personnel for Catholic Charities of the Diocese of Raleigh*

Revision Date: 01/2013

SECTION ONE: Preamble

- 1.1 By virtue of our baptism, all Catholics share in the mission of the Church to continue the work of Jesus Christ. Jesus is Lord and we must seek the Kingdom as He did. We must preach the Good News that there is a God who loves us beyond our imagining. We must give our love and the provisions of life to those who have them in small measure. By our actions we must share our conviction that everything that occurs between us is a function of our relationship with God.
- 1.2 The call to discipleship is abundant in grace. It is also an awesome responsibility. We who represent the Church, the bishop, priests, deacons, seminarians, non-ordained religious, lay employees and lay volunteers who are involved in work for the Diocese of Raleigh, its parishes and agencies and who represent the Church by virtue of office, designated position, employment or contract (hereafter called Church Personnel) have a special obligation due to roles of leadership and positions of trust. Our brothers and sisters, young and old, invite us into their lives, open their hearts, share their joys and hopes, their grief and anxieties with us. They are confident that we will listen compassionately and act honorably in their best interest. Our behavior as Church Personnel, both public and private, has the potential to inspire those entrusted to our pastoral care to faith and hope and to motivate them toward greater generosity and participation in a life of faith. Sadly, when trust is abused it also has the potential to weaken or destroy faith, and cause scandal.
- 1.3 It is essential that Church Personnel be constantly mindful of the trust given to them. Faithfully discharging the responsibilities that accompany our work requires constant prayerful reflection and must be sustained and supported by God's grace. Our obligations require each of us to act with love and prudence. This Code of Conduct will assist in this task.
- 1.4 These statements do not presume to provide answers to all ethical questions. They present a set of general standards to help guide day to day actions and form a framework for developing policies and discussing ethical questions. Church Personnel in the Diocese of Raleigh agree to abide by this Code of Conduct and understand that disregarding these principles through personal conduct or life style contrary to the moral and religious doctrines or teachings of the Roman Catholic Church may lead to corrective and/or disciplinary action.

SECTION 2: Principles

2.1 Church personnel of the Diocese of Raleigh shall:

- a. Respect the teachings and precepts of the Catholic Church
- b. Respect the rights, dignity and worth of each person from conception to natural death.
- c. Conduct their relationships with others free of deception, manipulation, exploitation or intimidation.
- d. Work to ensure just treatment for colleagues, employees, volunteers, parishioners and others with whom they interact.
- e. Seek to provide an environment that is non-discriminatory, free from all forms of abuse and promotes respect, self control and personal safety.
- f. While under our supervision to protect, to the best of our ability those entrusted to our care, especially children and youth as well as adults who are physically or mentally challenged.
- g. Provide guidance for individuals or groups in a way that protects and respects each person, and is free from deception, manipulation, exploitation or intimidation.
- h. Keep all information received in the course of formal counseling or spiritual direction in the strictest confidence in accord with professional ethical codes and as mandated by canon and civil law.
- i. Make no false accusations against another or reveal the faults and failings of another to those who have no right to know.
- j. Be responsible stewards of the human, temporal, and financial resources of the Church.
- k. Maintain a high level of competence in our designated role in the Church and prudently attend to our physical, spiritual, mental and emotional well-being.
- l. Avoid accepting or conferring an office, position, assignment or compensation that creates a conflict of interest or the perception of impropriety.
- m. Examine our own actions and intentions objectively to ensure that our behavior promotes the welfare of the community and exemplifies the strong moral tradition of the Church.
- n. Promptly report incidents of ethical misconduct by other Church Personnel to the proper Church and/or civil authority
- o. Church personnel are prohibited from speaking in a manner that is derogatory or demeaning. All are expected to refrain from swearing or using foul language.

- p. Church personnel are prohibited from possessing or viewing child pornography as is consistent with North Carolina State Law. Church personnel are prohibited from possessing or allowing a person to view pornography or any sexually explicit or morally inappropriate materials on Church property, at Church sponsored events or in the presence of minors. Such materials include, but are not limited to: magazines, videos, films, recordings, computer software, computer games, or printed materials. In addition, topics of conversation or discussion, vocabulary or any other form of personal interaction or entertainment that could not be used in the presence of parents or a responsible adult are also prohibited.
- q. Church personnel are to refrain from sexually offensive humor and conversation.

2.2 In addition to these guidelines church personnel shall abide by any applicable professional codes of conduct, ethical norms, canon or civil laws.

SECTION 3: Behavioral Guidelines for Church Personnel Working with Minors

- 3.1 The following guidelines are intended to assist Church Personnel in making decisions about interactions with minors in Church sponsored and affiliated programs. They are not intended to address every possible situation or designed to address interactions within families. For clarification of any guideline or to inquire about a behavior not addressed here, please contact your pastor, agency director, principal or the Director for the Program for the Protection of Children and Young People.
- a. Corporal punishment is prohibited when disciplining minors. Physical force may only be used to restrain individuals from inflicting harm on themselves and/or others.
 - b. Church Personnel are prohibited from engaging in sexually oriented conversations with minors except in the context of sharing the Church's teaching on human sexuality. Church personnel are never permitted to use examples from their own sexual history or experience.
 - c. Church Personnel are prohibited from using tobacco products in the presence of minors or having in their possession or being under the influence of any alcoholic beverage or any illegal drugs when working with minors. Church Personnel are prohibited from providing minors with any alcoholic beverage, tobacco, drugs or any substance prohibited by law.
 - d. Medications may be administered to minors only with written parental permission. Parents should provide the medication clearly labeled (prescriptions or over-the counter medications) and dosing instructions for the medication.
 - e. Church Personnel should schedule one-on-one guidance sessions or meetings with minors at times and locations that promote accountability and meet accepted standards of propriety. This includes limiting the length and the number of meetings, making referrals and notifying the parents and/or guardians as appropriate. Church Personnel providing counseling services should follow the standards of care and code of ethics for their respective professions in terms of services to minors and notification of parents and/or guardians.

- f. Adults should avoid being alone with a minor so as to remove the opportunity for, or perception of impropriety. Church Personnel are prohibited from sleeping in the same bed, hotel room, van, sleeping bag or tent with a minor unless the adult is a parent, guardian or sibling of the minor. Church personnel should not take an overnight trip alone with a minor who is not an immediate family member. Church Personnel should avoid being alone with a minor (not a member of the family) in a locker room, rest room, dressing facility, car or vehicle or other isolated area that is not appropriate to a ministerial relationship. When the good of the minor requires that they be accompanied by an adult to any of these locations, the time alone with the minor should be minimal and another adult should be made aware of the circumstances. As a general rule, changing and showering facilities should be separate for male and female and facilities and arrangements for minors separate from adults or should be used by adults and minors at different times.

NOTE: When there is only one large room that serves as the sleeping area for each gender, at least two adult leaders should be present in each sleeping area.

- g. Church Personnel, acting in their ministerial role, should not host minors who are not family members for overnight accommodations where there is no other adult supervision present. This includes, but is not limited to, accommodations in any church-owned facility, private residence, hotel room, or any other place where there is no other adult supervision present.
- h. Clergy should not allow minors who are not members of their family to stay overnight in their private accommodations or residence unless accompanied by other adults.
- i. Appropriate demonstrations of affection between Church Personnel and minors can be important for a child's development and a positive part of ministry. Touching must be age appropriate and based on the need of the minor not the adult. If an adult has questions regarding demonstrating affection toward a minor they should discuss the matter with their supervisor or an adult qualified to render an opinion about appropriate ministerial boundaries.

3.2 Church Personnel may be in a position to provide transportation for minors.

The following guidelines apply:

- a. Ordinarily minors should not be transported without written permission.
 - b. Minors should be transported directly to their destination with no unauthorized stops.
 - c. Drivers must be validly licensed and insured.
 - d. Drivers may not drive a diocesan vehicle without prior authorization.
 - e. Drivers are to abide by all applicable state laws (including safety seats /belts) and diocesan policies regarding the safe transportation of children and youth.
- 3.3 Church Personnel observing anyone (adult or minor) abusing a minor, must take immediate steps to intervene to provide a safe environment for the minor and report the misconduct in accord with diocesan policies and civil law. Church personnel who have cause to suspect that a minor has been abused must report the suspected abuse in accord with the Diocese of Raleigh Policies and Procedures for the Protection of Children and Young People and civil law.

SECTION 4: Guidelines for the Supervision of Minors

Guidelines include, but are not limited to, the following:

- 4.1 Church personnel are responsible for releasing minors in their care at the close of activities only to parents, legal guardians or other persons designated by parents or legal guardians in writing. Special circumstances for the release of children require written parental/guardian permission.
- 4.2 Programs for minors should be administered by at least two adult supervisors.
- 4.3 Church personnel should report uncontrollable, dangerous, or unusual behavior of minors to parents /guardians as soon as possible.
- 4.4 Church personnel are to report substance abuse by minors to parent/guardian as soon as possible.
- 4.5 As far as possible, facilities should be monitored during church services, and during all other (school and parish) activities on the church/school grounds.
- 4.6 Parents should be encouraged to be part of all services and programs in which their children and young people are involved.
- 4.7 Parental permission should be obtained, including a signed medical treatment authorization form before taking minors on trips.
- 4.8. Parental approval must always be obtained before permitting any minor to participate in athletic or other activities.

Formerly the Code of Professional Responsibility*

I have read and agree to abide by the Code of Conduct for Church Personnel for the Diocese of Raleigh – Catholic Charities.

Conflict of Interest Policy Board of Directors and Employees

1. Scope. The following statement of policy applies to each member of the Board of Catholic Charities of the Diocese of Raleigh, Inc. (Catholic Charities) and to all persons employed by Catholic Charities, regardless of position. Catholic Charities, its Board of Directors (Board) and Staff (employees and contract workers) are committed to ethical, business like, and lawful conduct. To ensure understanding and compliance with Catholic Charities standards and relevant Federal Government requirements, each member of the Board, (including the Officers as Ex Officio members), and each Staff member, including contract workers, will be required to read, agree to and sign this Conflict of Interest Policy. Each Board member shall complete the Annual Conflict of Interest Statement (1) upon entry onto the Board and (2) annually while a member of the Board. Each Catholic Charities employee shall sign the annual Conflict of Interest Statement (1) at the time of hire and (2) annually.

2. Responsibility. All decisions of the Board and employees of Catholic Charities are to be made solely on the basis of a desire to promote the best interests of Catholic Charities and those it serves.

3. Disclosure of Conflicts with Respect to Potential Financial Transactions. In the event any financial transaction or other matter involving Catholic Charities also involves (1) a Board member, employee or their relative, or (2) an organization with which any Board member, employee or their relative has any material financial interest, the Board member or employee having the affiliation or interest, at the first knowledge of the transaction or other matter, shall disclose fully the precise nature of the interest or involvement. For the purposes of this policy, a relative is any person who is related by blood or marriage, or whose relationship with the employee is similar to that of persons who are related by blood or marriage.

4. Disclosure Statement. Each Board member and employee of Catholic Charities shall be required to submit a disclosure statement listing all organizations with which he or she is affiliated and describing the nature of the affiliation as defined below. In the event there is any material change in the information contained in any disclosure statement, the person who submitted it shall promptly submit written notification of the change.

A Board member or employee is deemed to be affiliated with any organization that may be potentially related to the financial operation of Catholic Charities if he or she, or their relative (1) is a director, trustee, officer, partner, employee, or agent; or (2) receives direct financial benefit from sales or services; or (3) has a 35 percent or greater interest. In no way should this policy imply that Board members or employees or their relatives should reveal any religious, ethnic, political, fraternal or civic affiliations.

All personnel of Catholic Charities, including Board members and Staff members and their relatives, are expected to be alert to and to avoid conflicts of interest that jeopardize the care of persons served and that interfere with the Staff's delivery of services as further delineated in the Code of Ethics of Catholic Charities of the Diocese of Raleigh, Inc., especially IV Ethical Standards.

5. Administration. All disclosures required under this policy and amendments thereto, if by Board members, shall be directed in writing to the Chairperson of the Board, or if by employees, in writing to the Executive Director. The Chairperson of the Board and the Executive Director shall be responsible for the administration of this policy. Issues identified as a result of disclosures under this policy concerning Board members shall be reported initially to the Chairperson of the Board for appropriate action; those concerning Staff shall be referred initially to the Executive Director. Information disclosed under this policy shall be held in confidence by the persons authorized to receive and act upon it except where, in the judgment of any of such persons, the best interest of Catholic Charities requires further disclosure. The Chairperson of the Board will report annually that he or she and the Executive Director have supervised the completion of the signing of the annual statement by Board members and Staff members and that either there are no reportable issues or there are some issues and the Chairperson will disclose what those issues are to the Board.

6. Restraint on Participation. A Board member who has declared or has been found to have a conflict of interest in any proposed transaction or other matter shall refrain from participating in consideration of the proposed transaction or other matter, unless for special reasons the Board requests information or interpretation from the person or persons involved. In the case of a Board member, he or she shall not vote on the matter in question and, if so requested by the Chairperson or any other member of the Board, shall not be present at the time of the vote. With respect to restraint on participation by a staff member, the Executive Director, or, where applicable, the Chairperson, shall take such action as is necessary to assure that the transaction or other matter is completed in the best interests of Catholic Charities without the substantive involvement of the person who has the possible conflict of interest.

7. Advance Determinations. Any staff member who is uncertain about possible conflict of interest in any matter may request the Executive Director to determine whether a possible conflict exists. Any Board member who is uncertain about possible conflict of interest in any matter may request the Executive Committee to determine whether a possible conflict exists; the Executive Committee shall resolve the question by majority vote. If required, the question of potential conflict might be referred to counsel for an opinion prior to the Executive Committee vote.

Request for Group Coverage/Enrollment Form

Due to the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (HIPAA), certain provisions contained within this plan may or may not apply while you are covered. PLEASE READ THE FOLLOWING CAREFULLY.

If you have a condition for which medical advice, diagnosis, care, or treatment was recommended or received within three months before your enrollment date and within three months after your effective date with the CBEBT, you will be subject to pre-existing condition exclusion. A pre-existing condition exclusion period is the amount of time when payment for service related to that condition is limited. The exclusion period from the date of enrollment will be: 12 months for timely entrants (individuals who enroll when first eligible); or 6 months deferral period plus 12 months for late entrants (See Late Entrant/Prior Waiver Form). The pre-existing exclusion will not apply to any member (employee, spouse or child) under the age of 19; or pregnancy.

The pre-existing exclusion period may be reduced by the number of days you were covered under a prior health plan. You have the right to demonstrate coverage under a prior health plan. To do this, you may request a certificate of coverage from a prior health plan or insurer. When it is received, please forward a copy of this certificate to our office. Once the length of prior creditable coverage has been determined, you will receive a notice from us stating the length of your pre-existing condition exclusion period, if any.

SPECIAL ENROLLMENT RIGHTS

If you waive (or decline) enrollment for yourself or your dependents because of other health coverage, you may later enroll within 31 days of a loss of other health coverage. Loss of health coverage includes separation, divorce, death, termination of employment, reduction in work hours, exhaustion of COBRA continuation or state continuation, or if employer contributions toward your coverage have terminated.

In addition, any change in your family status may allow you to enroll within 31 days of the event. It includes marriage, birth, adoption, or placement for adoption of a child. (See Special Enrollment Form)

If enrollment is not made at the time these special enrollment opportunities occur, you may apply for coverage via a Late Entrant/Prior Waiver Form. Benefits will not be effective until the first of the month following a six month deferral period. The six month deferral period begins on the day we receive the form. Once enrolled, there will be a twelve month pre-existing condition period (less prior creditable coverage if applicable) and deferred dental.

With the Onset of the Children's Health Insurance Program Reauthorization Act of 2009 two additional enrollment opportunities apply for CBEBT Trust members and their enrolled dependents if either of the following occurs:

- Termination of Medicaid or Children's Health Insurance Program (CHIP) due to loss of eligibility; or
- Become eligible for state premium assistance under Medicaid or CHIP.

Trust members and their dependents who are eligible but not enrolled for coverage under the Christian Brothers Employee Benefit Trust are allowed up to 60 days to request coverage under the group health plan.

If enrollment is not made at the time these special enrollment opportunities occur, you may apply for coverage via a Late Entrant/Prior Waiver Form. Benefits will not be effective until the first of the month following a 6 month deferral period. The 6 month deferral period begins on the day we receive the form. Once enrolled, there will be a 12 month pre-existing condition period (less prior creditable coverage if applicable) and deferred dental.

Please contact your employer for any clarification regarding your enrollment in the CBEBT.

Christian Brothers Employee Benefit Trust History

The Christian Brothers Employee Benefit Trust (CBEBT) was established on January 1,1977, by the Christian Brothers. It began in 1966 as a collective effort to provide a comprehensive package of Employee Benefits to the employees of the Christian Brothers schools. As the news spread of the benefits and savings received by participating in a large group, it was opened in 1977 to any Catholic institution registered in the Kenedy Catholic Directory nationwide.

The CBEBT has evolved into a cooperative effort of Catholic organizations continuously working together to provide a package of benefits for their employees in a cost-effective manner.

The CBEBT is governed by a board of Trustees who have been elected by the members of the Trust. The Trustees have contracted with Christian Brothers Services to act as the Plan Administrator for the Trust. Employee Benefit Services is the division of Christian Brothers Services that administers all the benefits plans funded by the Trust.

Christian Brothers Services Mission Statement

The Mission of Christian Brothers Services is to serve the Catholic Community by helping to fulfill organizational and managerial needs through the development of quality, cost-effective, innovative programs and administrative services.

We accomplish this mission in collaboration with other Catholic organizations by combining leadership and insight with the practice of good business principles and belief in the tenets of the Catholic Church.

EMPLOYEE ACKNOWLEDGMENT FORM

The employee handbook describes important information about this organization, and I understand that I should consult my immediate supervisor or the Executive Director of Catholic Charities regarding any questions not answered in the handbook.

Since the information, policies, and benefits described here are necessarily subject to change, I acknowledge that revisions to the handbook may occur. All changes will be communicated through official notices, and I understand that revised information may supersede, modify, or eliminate existing policies. I acknowledge that any changes to the handbook to be effective must be in writing.

While I look forward to ongoing employment with Catholic Charities, I acknowledge that I have entered into my employment relationship with Catholic Charities voluntarily and that there is no specified length of employment.

Furthermore, I acknowledge that this handbook is neither a contract of employment nor a legal document. I have had the opportunity to review the handbook, and understand where to access the handbook in the future. I understand that it is my responsibility to read and comply with the policies contained in this handbook and any revisions made to it.

Retirement: 403(b) Plan

Catholic Charities provides a 403(b) retirement plan through The Diocese of Raleigh for all Regular Full-Time and Regular Part-Time employees who have attained the age of 21. Catholic Charities 403(b) retirement plan is administered by Lincoln Financial Group (www.lfg.com).

Enrollment in the 403(b) Retirement Plan is automatic for eligible employees. Catholic Charities will contribute an employer core contribution of 4% of salary into an employee's account with Lincoln Financial Group. Vesting on the employer core contributions, plus earnings they generate, is based on a five (5) year vesting schedule of 20% per year. Eligible service years attained under the previous defined benefit plan apply to the vesting schedule.

In addition, Catholic Charities will make an employer matching contribution in an amount equal to 50% of the first 5% contributed by an employee. Employee contributions must abide by certain maximum limitations on salary deferral contributions made to the plan. These limitations are set by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) each year. If an employee has attained or will attain age 50 by the end of the calendar year, the employee may contribute more up to the IRS limit. Employees are always 100% vested in the employer matching contributions and any earnings they generate.

An employee can direct his or her contributions to a variety of widely-recognized mutual funds. If an employee does not select investment choices, contributions will be invested in a default fund based on the employee's date of birth and the date when the employee will reach normal retirement age (65).

Eligible new employees, hired on or after July 1, 2014, will automatically be enrolled in the Diocese of Raleigh 403(b) Plan automatic-deferral feature at 5% beginning on the 1st of the month following their date of hire or as soon as administratively feasible. Employees may increase, decrease, or opt out of the auto-deferral feature at any time.

Employees whose employment classification does not make them eligible for the core contribution or matching funds may still contribute to the plan for tax-deferred savings.

For enrollment and investment information, employees can contact Lincoln Financial Group at 1-800-234-3500 or visit their website at: www.lfg.com.

BENEFICIARY INFORMATION

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Your designation revokes all prior designations. Benefits are payable to a contingent Beneficiary only if you are not survived by one or more primary Beneficiaries. If you name two or more Beneficiaries in a class (primary or contingent), two or more surviving Beneficiaries will share equally, unless you provide for unequal shares. If a minor (a person not of legal age) or your estate is the Beneficiary, it may be necessary to have a guardian or a legal representative appointed by the court before any death benefit can be paid. If the Beneficiary is a trust or trustee, the written trust must be identified in the Beneficiary designation. For example, "Dorothy Q. Smith, Trustee under the trust agreement dated _____." A power of attorney must grant specific authority, by the terms of the document or applicable law, to make or change a Beneficiary designation. If you have questions, consult your legal advisor. Dependents Insurance and Supplemental Life Insurance on your Spouse, if any, is payable to you, if living, or as provided under your Employer's coverage under the Group Policy. If you complete the "% of Benefit" box(es), the amounts should add up to 100% for each class (primary or contingent). For example, "Primary - John Q. Doe, 60%; Jane Q. Doe, 40%."
